Group I. Chain. Lane High School. Charlottesville.

Chain is e good, reedable, but uneven yearbook.

The carnival theme has served as the besis for an ettractive oover and sectional pages, and the art work is commendable. Format and makeup are good but not of the best. Pictures are uneven: the "most" ones ere excellent, but many of the others are no more then averege end eome are poor. This fault oould lie either with the photographer or engrever. At times the printer hae permitted his type to bite too deeply into the paper end has allowed eome badly oaet letters to remain in type. Layout is not distinguished but is well enough done to make a reedable yearbook. I found the Senior Diary a good idea and interesting although at times it was difficult to follow. Good accounts were written of ectivities and clubs, end the editors are to be commended for including unpleasant news about the school. Advertising is run-of-mill.

A thorough and workman-like job makes the Chain en effective yearbook, but it is not perticulerly imaginative or distinguished.

Preface . . .

To get away from the strain and stress of war, we have turned to a theme in a lighter vein of fun and frivolity-- the carnival. We have tried to depict in a novel way this year's life at Lane. So, "step right up folks and see our show".

OUR CLASS

For four long years, we just existed, expectant and impatient for the time when we would at last be seniors. Now that it has come and gone, we are glad and sorry, and realize that it is worth all the waiting. We know now that all the apparently "haughty" upperclassmen are really just proud. The senior year is the climax and the happy ending, combined, to everyone's high school career. We begin to realize then that all the ups and downs we have experienced were something to be cherished and remembered that we may pass on to the future classes.

Oct. 8—Mr. Gresham made us learn Chaucer's Prologue—"Whan that Aprille——"

Oct. 10—Pep assembly for the game tomorrow. Everyone gathered at the canteen for a rally tonite—I think the "Rabbi" stole the show!

Oct. 11—Lane played Lynchburg today—Arnold was really "in there", but we needed more like him 'cause we lost 21-0.

Oct. 12—All the girls dragged a man(?) to the canteen tonite for the Sadie Hawkins dance. Big time! Oogie got a rush.

Oct. 15—Some of the more intelligent history students held a "Town Meeting" in assembly today. The topic was "Should Eighteen-year-olds Vote?" Abbott got a candy bar for an intelligent(?) question.

Oct. 16—In case you're wondering why everyone is following Peggy around, our senior rings just arrived. I think mine is beautiful!

March 20—Lane sent quite a few people to Arlington to the Virginia Literary Contest. Ann Chase was chosen the outstanding actress of this district, and "The Twelve Pound Look" placed second.

March 21—If you had happened to look into sixth period workroom, you would have seen a lemon flying around. Well, that is one way to get your trig done!

April 1—April Fool's Day! Elections at canteen tonite. Mike Cason will rule next year.

April 2—April Showers. All the girl's hair was straight

April 3—Easter Vacation started today. "C" Club Dance tonite. What a wonderful way to start a week-end.

April 8—Went in canteen and saw ole "Shark" Casey playing a hand of bridge.

April 10—There's a rule against sitting in cars during lunch, but someone can always find a way to get around rules.

April 11—Previews of the Senior Play "Snafu" today. Claude, you should have been in plays before.

April 12—Lane won a track meet against Fairfax today at Lambeth Field. Everyone got a sunburn! Bickley surprised himself at the discus throw.

April 14—Looked in Mrs. Langley's office at the canteen and saw the meeting of the officers.

April 15—Assembly this morning to award Basketball letters. You can buy pretty "C's" at the City News Store. Lane lost its first baseball game at Fluvanna.

April 16—Wandered in to hear the band practice and heard maestro Simmons and his clarinet.

April 17—I'm a wreck, play practice every nite and a book report today.

April 17-18—The Senior Class presented "Snafu" this week-end. Since no one else gives an account of the play, I'll tell you all about it. The characters were:

Josephina	Andrea Adams
Madge Stevens	Sallie Ross
Laura Jessup	Peggy Lawrence
Ben Stevens	Claude Reed
Mr. Taylor	Douglas Fraser
Kate Hereford	Mary Rives Ogilvie
Aunt Emily	Lois Bendel
Senator Phil Ford	Jack Barr
1st Legionnaire	Sam Crickenberger
2nd Legionnaire	Ken Wallenborn
Ronald Stevens	Edwin Betts
Pfc. Danny Baker	Jimmy Simmons
Mrs. Garrett	Barbara Hankins
Detective	Jimmy Harlow
Martha	Ann Patterson
Col. West	Lee Alden

The setting was in sunny California near an airfield where planes zoom overhead all day and anything can happen.

New talent was discovered when Miss Horwitz began choosing the cast from the entire Senior Class. The cast and crew will remember the phone that didn't ring and the planes that didn't fly over. But the audience never noticed those small defects in an otherwise bang-up performance.

April 19—Track meet and baseball game at Fredericksburg today. Lane won both.

April 23—Mrs. King is busy planning new lunches for spring appetities.

I picked violets in gym today and waved bye-bye to the baseball team. They went to Orange.

April 24—These healthy looking young ladies are the product of 5th period gym class. Ask them about the day they got locked in the dressing room during exercises.

Eighth Grade gave an assembly today. Now we know who will carry on after we're gone. They were really good actors and actresses.

April 25-27—Senior Trip to Washington this week-end. And what a week-end! My aching feet!

April 29—Miss Jones' homeroom presented a play in assembly this morning.

April 30—We're having more Senior meetings these days! And we never decide anything!

May 3—The Hi-Y Banquet was tonite. Chicken again! The Junior-Senior Prom was tonite also. More flowers and pretty dresses.

May 7—If you've been noticing the peculiar way that Mr. Gresham has been acting lately, and think maybe he's gone crazy, don't worry about it. The other day I got close enough to hear him mumbling something about the CHAIN going to press. Poor man, his entire staff has spring fever.

May 8—By jingo! I was late again. They're gonna have to stop ringing that bell before I get here!

May 13—At last I've discovered the cause of all my trouble. Wanta know? Why I have indigestion everyday 4th period, I mean? It's because I eat so fast just so I can dash in 112 and listen to "His Feet Too Big For De Bed." And let me add that it's worth it.

May 14—I looked in Mr. Reitz's room 6th period and said "Poor man." I meant it too! That nice man has Charlie Carroll, A. D. Hart, and Gilbert Spencer all three in one class! As if Gilly isn't enough.

May 16—Whee! It's Friday, two days and three nights all to myself, with no school and best of all, no gym!

May 19—I must get in voice (is that possible?). It's time to start practicing songs for graduation.

May 20—Life can be beautiful! Who said so?

May 23—This was the day for a bike! If you didn't have to walk, I'd have taken one.

May 27—I made a resolution to start studying as of today. So, I'll leave you for a while.

June 1-10—I had to come back long enough to tell you that my exams start now; then there's the Senior picnic. We get to put on our caps and gowns for baccalaureate service. Next there's the banquet and a dance, and then the Senior Class of '47 will set out to do great deeds.

I'm really going to miss Lane next year. You know if I had my years at Lane to live over again, I wouldn't change a thing.

Post Graduates

We are glad to welcome back in our midst a number of post graduates, most of whom are returning for the purpose of making up math units that are required for college entrance. Others have entered the Commercial Department, taking shorthand, typing, and bookkeeping.

Since this class has entered Lane, a great number of its members have taken part in activities. The Sophomores in the Choir and the Hi-Y s are too numerous to mention. In the Girls' Activities Council were Joyce Brown, Virginia Morton, Pat Hawkins, and Betty Sadler. The Lanetime and CHAIN staffs have some sophomores with promising talent. Those who made the All-State Band are Robert Lutz, Alton Thomas, Kathleen Clark, and Mary Ann McCasland.

To represent them in the Student Council the Sophomore Class had Joe Coleman, Jessie Ewell, Lowry Furst, Kathleen Clark, Jean McCauley, Margaret Saunders, Libby Wade, and Caroline Hudson.

Hunter Lang, Jimmy Coiner, Bill Hurtt, Billy Mills, David Cooke, and Joe Bingler were outstanding in athletics.

Butler, Alton Thomas, Robert Gabler, Shirley Harlowe, E. F. Houff, Jimmy Coiner, Jackie Scott, Shirley Wood, and Maxine Craddock.

In the greatest class at Lane.
Happy hearts and smiling faces,
Life is at its best at Lane.
In the class we proudly call our own
Highest ideals are aflame.

This year the Eighth Grade class has one hundred sixty-two pupils. Forty-nine of these came from Clark, fifty-two from Venable, fifty-four from McGuffey, and seven from elsewhere.

In September the class elected officers. Each homeroom was allowed to nominate a candidate for each office. Since the pupils did not know everyone, the class met in the cafeteria and Roberdeau Wallenborn, last year's Eighth Grade president, introduced the nominees.

At the beginning of the first semester the Girls' Activities Council sponsored a party in the music room for all new girls and teachers in the high school to become acquainted with one another and learn more about the school, the teachers, and the principal.

Quite a few of the boys went out for football. In the fall an assembly was given at which the Junior Varsity players received their "L's". According to the coach, some of these players show quite a bit of promise for Lane's future varsity football teams.

Once the pupils were settled, they began to take part in many activities. One of these was the Eighth Grade Girls' Hi-Y. Among the new members enlisted in the Players Club were Mary Bush, Betty Hudson, and Louise Dougherty. The girls who are members of the Girls' Activities Council are Eleanor Laing, Maxine Mundy, Mary Kelley, Barbara Staples, June Shipp, Thelma Jennings, and Leanna Depew. The band and glee club were well supported by Eighth Graders.

The representatives from the Eighth Grade classes to the Student Council were Norma Davis, Betty Staples, Thelma Jennings, Carol Smith, Harvey Mulhauser, Peggy Schuchart, Woodrow Birckhead, Charles Goddin, and Juanita Payne.

The Eighth Graders have taken great part in both scholastic and extra-curricula activities. They have made a place for themselves and have taken real interest in the school.

Constance Via, editor of the CHAIN, and a staff of fifteen students were responsible for the annual this year. After the preliminary decisions such as choosing a theme and selecting section heads had been accomplished, a general plan or "dummy for the whole annual had to be drawn up. After this rough copy had been approved, from the standpoints of the engraver and the staff, the cameras of John Fray and other photographers clicked.

Then came the club secretaries' hardest job of the year, write-ups for the CHAIN. Students groaned as the CHAIN prompters repeated twice a day, "Friday's the deadline for you." Finally Constance gave that sigh of relief, for all the material for the 1947 annual was on the presses.

The staff sincerely hopes that this, the 29th link of the CHAIN, comes up to the expectations of you students, for whom it was prepared, and will help you recall many pleasant and unforgetable days at Lane.

"C" Club to Hold Dance April 3

The "C" Club will hold an informal dance in the gym, Thursday, April 3, from 8:30 to 12:00.

There have been few dances this year, and the "C" Club is trying to help this situation. Everyone who went to the Christmas dance knows what a big success it was.

There's gonna be a big rush for dates, so get yours now.

Senior Play to Be Given In April

Preparations are being made for the Senior Play which is to be held sometime in April. The play which was decided upon is "Snafu", a three-act comedy. Those teachers and seniors who decided upon the play were as follows: Miss Virginia Bolen, Miss Sylvia P. Horwitz, Sallie Ross, Mary Rives Ogilvie, Andrea Adams, Edwin Betts, James Simmons, and Walter Finnegan. Tryouts were held Tuesday and Thursday of this week.

Do You Have Ideas?

The interest in selecting or even submitting a nickname for our athletic teams has reflected greatly on our school spirit. In three weeks not a single name has been turned in.

A prize is being offered to the contributor of the winning name. We would like to have the entries so that our track and baseball teams can be the first to participate under the new name.

Washington and Lee has its "Little Generals"; Fairfax has its "Rebels"; why can't Lane have a nickname too?

Mereness Is Local Winner In Contest

In order to promote better speaking and writing, the American Legion is sponsoring a state-wide Oratorical and Essay contest open to all high school students. Murray Nimmo, John Fletcher, Karyn Mereness, Wayne Overman, and Douglas Fraser have entered in the essay contest, while Philip Corey has agreed to make the oration. Since the best paper in the school had to be selected by the prin-

Lanetime

During the last few years when relatively few people interested in journalism were able to get together during any period of the day, Mr. Blume organized a special Junior class in journalism. Almost all the writing for LANETIME was done by this group of students who wrote articles for the paper instead of regular composition assignments.

The purpose of LANETIME is to keep the student body informed on current issues about the school, to represent the ideas of the students, and to promote constructive campaigns for both school and community.

Lions Club Presents Annual Minstrel Show

The 1947 Lions' Club Minstrel Show, under the direction of Bob Bancroft, was presented by many Charlottesville residents on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of last week in the Lane High School auditorium. On two nights the crowds were so great that many persons had to be turned away.

In addition to the usual black-face and ensemble songs, this year's minstrel had the added attraction of dance routines by gayly costumed boys and girls. As usual, the minstrel part of the show contained a good bit of comedy aimed at various civic leaders.

The first part of the show consisted of musical numbers and dances. Many Lane students and alumni participated in this part of the show, as well as in the minstrel part.

Among the soloists in the show were Mary Glover, Ann Best, Paul Hudson, Sam Seig, James Collier, Jr., Alec Slivinske, Gordon Yowell, Junius Winn, Albert Yancey, J. B. Armentrout, Lee Greaver, John Berlinghoff, and Cy Odell.

S.C.A. Holds Annual Conference At Lane

"School Control" was the theme of the Student Cooperative Association of the Piedmont District, which met at Lane Wednesday of this week for the annual group conference.

In the morning session, the forum topic was: What Shall Be the Limitations of the Pupil's Responsibility in School Control? Sallie Ross discussed Organization and Function of Student Council, which was a selection of the forum topics. Another section, Responsibility in Classroom and Assembly of Student Council, was discussed by Allan Wimbish. The last section of the forum topic, Formulation and Approval of Student Regulations (Laws) by the Student Council, was presented by Ken Wallenborn. These topics were chosen to stimulate thinking among high school students along the lines of "School Control". Many interesting points were brought out by the different speakers during the course of the morning.

In the afternoon session, Hugh L. Sulfridge, Lane principal, gave a summary of the morning discussion. After Mr. Sulfridge's talk, the business part of the meeting was conducted with Miss Betty Ann Utz of Orange High School presiding. She was capably assisted by Ken Wallenborn, vice-chairman, and Miss Ella Ruth Scott of Fluvanna High School, secretary.

Entertainment for the visiting delegates was provided for by the Lane High School Band under the direction of Sharon B. Hoose. Several selections were played by the band at the opening of the morning session. In the afternoon session, the Lane choir presented some special music for the delegates. To complete the entertainment of the visiting delegates, the visitors were taken on a tour of our high school. The tour covered the Homemaking Department, the Typing Department, the Mechanical Drawing Class, the Metal and Woodwork shops, the Physical Education Department, and the Library. The purpose of the tour was to show how a modern high school is equipped and operated.

This highly efficient program was the result of many hours of long, hard, and tedious work on the part of H. H. Walker, the Program Chairman of the meeting of the Student Cooperative Association. Enough praise cannot be given Mr. Walker f

The Bumblebee, which was rated superior by the Virginia High School Literary and Athletic League last year, has often been lauded for its literary calibre. However, it has also been criticised for its drabness and for its limited appeal, which the staff has tried to overcome.

The feature department was created this year to bring to the Bumblebee an adequate amount of humorous and light articles. It was the aim of the staff to form and to maintain a feature section which would rival the more serious material in the magazine.

Perhaps the most refreshing innovation of the Bumblebee make-up was the addition of drawings illustrating the feature material.

The Players Club is the dramatic organization at Lane. This year try-outs were held by the Club for all who were interested in joining. A group of judges from the Players Club selected the persons showing the greatest dramatic ability. The ones thus accepted were initiated and given membership in the club.

An annual affair of the Players Club is the production of a three-act play. This year the play was "Junior Miss", presented on October 24 and 25 under the direction of their sponsor.

Besides this three-act play, the Players Club presented several one-act plays to the school as an assembly program. Skits were frequently given by the members at meetings of the Club.

That the band was more popular with the student body this year than ever before will remain as the most desirable objective accomplished this year. During the football season the band received overwhelming applause for its intricate maneuvers and playing at each game. In addition to all home activities and one away, the band performed for two University of Virginia football games.

The bandsmen also gave all they had in producing a special assembly for the student body. With other assemblies and parades the band kept busy until Christmas, but found time to present its most outstanding Christmas Concert on December 15.

In February fourteen members were chosen to travel to Norfolk to participate in the All-State Band, which proved to be a success.

In the spring the band performed in such major events as the Annual Spring Concert, the Apple Blossom Festival Parade, and the Music Festival Competitions.

The band performed excellently and received top rating for its outstanding work this year.

The Lane High Choir, composed of thirty-five members, has completed a full year of activities. The officers included Sallie Ross as President; Paul Zang, Vice-President; and Anne Chase, Secretary. Miss Ruth Emmert, Supervisor of Vocal Music in the Charlottesville Schools, was the director.

A variety of programs was presented during the year. Two vesper programs were given in the University Chapel. The Christmas assembly, which was enjoyed very much by the student body, featured the choir assisted by the Glee Club and Clark School Boys' Choir.

Also included in the club activities this year were radio programs, a spring assembly, and participation in the district festival at Alexandria.

"C" Club

The "C" Club is an organization composed of boys who have won their varsity letter in any one of the major sports sponsored by Lane.

Other than winning their letter, the boys have to go through an initiation which lasts three days before they can become members of the "C" Club. A small "C" pin is awarded by the club to each member after the initiation.

The first meeting of the "C" Club for the 1946-47 season was held September 15, 1946. The purpose of the meeting was to elect officers for the coming season. The officers elected were as follows: President, Bill Carter; Vice-President, Bobby Wood; Secretary, John Root; Treasurer, Arnold Breeden.

Through the sponsoring of programs for the different athletic contests and the concession of the Coca-Cola stand during the football games, the club made a large percentage of its money.

The "C" Club sponsored the annual Christmas and Easter dances, two occasions which the students looked forward to throughout the year.

During the summer the Boys' Senior Hi-Y sent four delegates to the Southern Area Conference in North Carolina to get ideas for the club. Having started off the school year with the first dance of the season, the club continued being active throughout the year. At Christmas it joined with the other Hi-Y's in collecting a fund for the underprivileged.

In October the club held a formal induction, jointly with the Girls' Hi-Y Club, to induct new members. All through the year it held bi-weekly meetings and had distinguished guest speakers.

In the spring came the traditional "Best Girl" dance and banquet, which was a big success. Then the officers for the next year were installed.

The Boys' Junior Hi-Y started work by inducting several new members at the beginning of the year.

On the first Sunday of every month, as had been done in the past, the club attended a different church in a body with the other Hi-Y clubs. The members in this way were able to become better acquainted with each denomination.

The Hi-Y held many special meetings and programs during the year at which the club heard helpful talks and advice. For recreation, parties were sponsored, attended, and greatly enjoyed by the club members and their guests. These parties not only provided recreation but helped to create more interest in the work of the Hi-Y.

The Girls' Senior H-Y has had a very successful year under the capable leadership of their president, Lois Bendel. Two of the most worthwhile activities were the program given at the Home for the Aged and the one given in the assembly in which Hi-Y talents were portrayed.

One Sunday each month the Senior Hi-Y joined with the other Hi-Y clubs in attendance at one of the churches of the city; all denominations were visited.

During the past year the Senior Hi-Y contributed to the Community Chest Fund, the Red Cross, and also to the Christmas Mother Fund for the underprivileged.

The programs were of a broad nature, and several outside speakers were invited to the meetings. One of the most impressive programs presented was the one for the induction of new members in which Senior Hi-Y officers participated. In February, the Hi-Y clubs observed the World Day of Prayer with an assembly.

The jeweled Hi-Y pin, worn each year by the girl who is selected by the club as the best example of Hi-Y ideals, was awarded this year to Lois Bendel.

Two of the Hi-Y members represented the club by attending the State Hi-Y Conference in November at Harrisonburg, Virginia.

This year several outstanding speakers attended the meetings. Among them were Mrs. Weinberg and Professor S. V. McCasland. All of the talks were helpful and very interesting.

At Christmas the club entered into the spirit of the season by having a party and contributing to the Tuberculosis Fund. They also contributed to other worthy organizations: the American Red Cross, Community Fund, and the March of Dimes. A trip was planned to the Rucker Home to give a play and serve refreshments for the crippled children.

The Girls' Activities Council this year was composed of a member from each homeroom, two representatives from the Student Council, and two representatives from the Ushers Club. In addition, there were courtesy members who were former representatives and who continued their work. All these members worked on one of the four standing committees.

The student welfare committee served the personal needs of the girls of the student body.

The vocational guidance committee arranged for speakers in many occupations to address the students.

The fellowship committee, which promoted friendliness throughout the school, was very active in meeting and readjusting new students who came to Lane. At the beginning of the school year, the council met the new students and entertained them at a party in the music room.

The publicity committee presented the plans and ideas of the council to the student body. This committee was especially active in sponsoring a number of assemblies this year.

Student Council

The primary project undertaken by the Student Council of 1946-47 was to make the homeroom period a time when school policies and rules could be explained and discussed.

Among the interesting things done by the Council this year was sending delegates to the Student Cooperative Association meeting in Richmond. Mr. Walker and the four council members attending—Charlotte Yancey, Sallie Ross, Henry Burton, and Jimmy Bickley—received much interesting information to report to the Council.

The Council has been very successful this year under the leadership of Mr. Walker, Sponsor; Ken Wallenborn, President; Henry Burton, Vice-President; Sallie Ross, Secretary; and Charlotte Yancey, Treasurer.

Ushers Club

This year's Ushers Club was very successful in many ways. The preceding year's Student Council elected some of the most capable Ushers that Lane has had in many years.

A new plan, adopted by last year's Student Council, was put into effect this year. This plan insured an adequate number of Ushers on their posts at all times. Five alternate Ushers were elected besides the regular fifteen. These five would replace any Ushers who were not able to perform their duties.

Besides their regular duties in school, the Club ushered for the Barter Theater plays, Community Concerts, Junior Chamber of Commerce play, and local graduations.

The Honor Committee was composed of students elected from the Ushers Club to enforce the laws of the governing body.

Distributive Education

A. Taylor D. Roston W. Thomas B. Coleman B. Cox

The Distributive Education Program is made up of a group of vocationally minded students who combine classroom instruction with on-the-job training to prepare themselves for jobs in the various fields of distribution. The course is offered to qualified juniors and seniors and requires fifteen hours of school training each week with a minimum of fifteen hours of work training. The Distributive Education students use the stores as their laboratories, where they put into practice the facts that they learn in school. A retail student learns by doing, and he develops skill in meeting and working with people. Actual job problems are brought to class for discussion and solution.

In addition to the business meetings, there also have been several social events. The highlight of the year is the Virginia Distributor's Club Conference held in Richmond in March of each year, to which is sent a delegate. This year the state organization is planning to send delegates to the National Distributors' Club Conference to be held in Tennessee in April.

The officers of the Distributive Education Club this year were: Wallace Thomas, President; Bobby Cox, Vice-President; Bobby Coleman, Treasurer; Anne Taylor and Dorothy Roston, Secretaries.

Athletic Committee

Over a period of years, the Faculty Athletic Committee has gradually become a more powerful and influential force in the school program. During this year, under the leadership of Mr. John E. Reitz, the committee has proved to be very effective and valuable.

The work of this committee is to pass its approval on all athletic awards and to approve all financial matters concerning the athletic program as a whole.

Without a faculty committee to apply pressure for the observance of its laws, an athletic program could not work effectively. So it is at Lane; our Faculty Athletic Committee can work together with the student committees to carry on a most successful athletic program.

SUMMARY

ALEXANDRIA

Lane opened a rather unsuccessful Varsity season of six losses, one win, and one tie by a 12-7 defeat from George Washington of Alexandria in a night game at Alexandria on Friday, September 27. A large throng of Lane supporters made the trip by bus and car to see Lane outplay G.W. during the first half, only to succumb to injuries and the G.W. attack in the last half. Lane's only score came on a spectacular Carter-to-Carroll pass midway in the first period.

HOPEWELL

On October 4, Lane played its first home game before a crowd of some 2500 yelling fans. Hopewell came out on the long end of the score, which was 25-0.

Police and other officials had their hands full at half-time and after the game trying to keep the peace. Angry fans stormed out on the field at the half and a small fight broke out on the field. Several persons were arrested on charges of assault with hands and fists. This was all the outcome of the officials suspending two Hopewell stars from the game.

LYNCHBURG

In its second home game Lane clashed with rampaging E. C. Glass of Lynchburg. Lane again came out on the short end of the score, which was 21-0. However, with Carter in the backfield and with Kennedy back in the line-up, Lane showed improvement over the previous game. Lynchburg, on the other hand, had a much heavier and more experienced team than Lane.

SALEM

On Friday, October 18, Lane traveled to Salem to play Andrew Lewis in a night game before a crowd of 5,000 people under the arcs. Lane's play during the first quarter was good, but the heavier Salem team broke down Lane's defense, scored in the closing minutes of the initial quarter, and emerged from the tilt with a 34-0 victory.

V. S. D. B.

On October 26 Lane traveled to Staunton to clash with the Virginia School of the Deaf and Blind. Lane's offensive for once was as powerful as it was shown to be on paper. The Orange and Black chalked up their first victory 40-19. The team marched to a touchdown the first time they got their hands on the ball and throughout the game Lane's backfield and forward wall were superior to those of V.S.D.B.'s. In the backfield Ken and Wheat Wallenborn and Carl Cash generaled most of the offense, while on the line Bernie Chisholm, Minor Omohundro, and King Richardson were instrumental in stopping the V.S.D.B. offense.

FAIRFAX

Lane, still handicapped by injuries and again on its losing streak, lost to Fairfax 14-0. Although Lane played a good game and controlled play during the first half, Fairfax got the breaks, and by a passing attack that netted them 7 points, came through on top.

1. Chisholm—guard; 2. Wood—quarterback; 3. Richardson—tackle; 4. Stauffer—fullback; 5. Carter—halfback; 6. Wells—guard; 7. Omohundro—tackle; 8. Bishop—halfback; 9. Root—end; 10. Carroll—end; 11. Breeden—halfback; 12. Eckford—center; 13. Kennedy—guard; 14. Hurtt—tackle; 15. Dettor—quarterback, 16. Yancey—end.

FREDERICKSBURG

The Orange and Black met Fredericksburg on its home field on Saturday, November 16. Although Lane's eleven outplayed the visitors, the game ended tied up 13-13. The first half was all Lane, but in the fourth quarter Fredericksburg pushed over a score to deadlock the contest.

This tilt was played without the services of two first string players, Bernie Chisholm and Arnold Breeden, who were injured the third play of the game.

ARLINGTON

Lane closed its 1946 football schedule with a loss to a powerful Arlington eleven, 37-6. Arlington showed plenty of punch as it took advantage of its superior weight to march up and down the field at will. Lane's only score came on an intercepted forward pass and a 60-yard runback by Root in the final quarter of the tilt.

Although Lane's season was not what could be hoped for, our eleven played hard and the school is certain next year's football will be more on Lane's side of the fence.

BASKETBALL SUMMARY

The basketball team under the able directorship of Harry Martin began practice several days before the Christmas vacation. During the few holiday practices Carl Deane took over the reins as head coach.

The prospects looked fair with several men returning from last year's squad. Composing this nucleus were Max Kennedy, Carl Cash, and Paul Payne, forwards; Bobby Wood, Gordon Stauffer, and Dick Morrisette, guards; Pat McCauley and Albert Yancey, centers. After the New Year celebrations school again opened, and the team began shaping up as a better-than-average squad.

From the first game of the regular season, with Orange, the Lane five were on the up-grade. The defeating of Fairfax for the second time could possibly be called the climax. Although the season had its ups and downs, as a whole it proved to be successful. One of the best games of the year was a well played contest at Arlington. During the second half the consistent scoring of McCauley and Cash brought Lane within three points of their taller and more experienced opponents; however, toward the end of the game Washington and Lee stretched their lead to about ten points.

After the season a committee of coaches selected Carl Cash as a forward on the all district team.

Coach Martin's Junior Varsity Basketball team finished its undefeated season on March 4. In the two games with Orange, the J.V. showed much superiority. Not only did the J.V.'s win every game, but gained valuable experience for future Varsity competition.

The spark plugs of this year's team were David Cooke, Bill Adams, and Wheat Wallenborn, who played heads-up the entire season.

The track squad this year was coached by Harry Martin. First call for track practice was issued around the first of March with an unusually large turnout resulting. Several regulars from last year's team were back again attempting to regain their positions on this year's team. Several of these regulars were: Jason Eckford in the hurdles; John Root in the 440-yard dash; Bobby Drash and Sam Crickenberger in the mile run; King Richardson, Albert Yancey, and "Titch" Morrisette in the field events; Allan Wimbish in the dashes; and Buddy LaFon in the 880-yard run. Some of the more promising newcomers were Charlie Carroll and Tommy Spicer.

During the winter months several of the members ran on the indoor track at the University under the coaching of Mr. Johnson, who assists Coach Archie Hahn. Three of our members went to the Southern Conference indoor track meet at Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Jason Eckford came home with a second in the 70-yard high hurdles, and John Root won a fourth place in the 1000-yard run. Earlier in a practice match Root had beaten the best that the University could offer.

Early indications showed our team strong in the hurdles, 440-yard dash, mile run, and weights.

Practice preceding the opening game was held to a minimum because of snow and wet grounds. From the few practices that were held the following tentative lineup was formed: Norford and Dettor, catchers; Cash and Kennedy, pitchers; Pete Bishop, first base; Bobby Wood, second base; Arnold Breeden, shortstop; Gordon Stauffer, third base; Bruce Horne, Carlton Morris, Carroll Herring, and George Gianakos, outfielders.

Physical Education Classes

Each student at Lane took physical education four times a week and a health class once a week under the direction of the physical education instructors.

The boys carried on many interscholastic athletics but this year all of the girls' athletics were intra-mural.

Through these classes the boys and girls learned good sportsmanship as well as team work and cooperation.

Varsity: D. May, J. Wood, B. A. Adams, B. Hankins, A. Dougherty, E. Ramey, M. Ix, J. McCauley, M. A. Martin.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders this year were elected by the presidents of all the homerooms and organizations. Four cheerleaders from last year were re-elected. Alice Dougherty was Varsity head-cheerleader for the football games, and "Chic" Martin for the basketball games.

This year was the first that Lane has had Junior Varsity cheerleaders. Pat Hibbert was head-cheerleader. They did an exceptionally good job, and Lane will have some good cheerleaders in the future.

Junior Varsity: L. Carruthers, B. Barr, P. Hibbert, A. Babcock, K. Murray.
